YiM = Youth in Ministry Mass - The first Sunday of each month, October to June, the 10:30am Mass is a Youth in Ministry Mass. Providing an opportunity for children and youth to experience and practice Ministry, while learning to understand our role as Baptized Catholic in the holy Church. We are called to serve the Lord and one another. By participating in the different ministries, we learn what role we appreciate and best suit our talents and gifts. We realize we all have an important part in celebrating the Mass, we are the body of Christ.
Children and youth are encouraged to be Greeters, Ushers, Lectors, Altar Servers, and members of the Choir. Training and support are provided for each Ministry.

Friday Fun Night – These evenings are held the last Friday of each month and are for Elementary age children, and their friends, to come together in faith and fellowship.
